- Adversity, some alliances depend on promises being kept secret...
- (Credibility of threats may depend on American public on discernment being ignorant of risks, high costs, low effort, Gov plans...
- [But does Pres of democracy have a Const. right to use such strategies?] ~~Yes~~

- = related to n. d.
1. Release does not (harm the national defense), in the substantial sense needed to make the Act constitutional — as an infringement on First Amendment.
 2. Anything that one might have thought would harm national sec. had already been published. (Public domain: witnesses also state that info about which questions might be raised has been available)
 3. Public need to have info overrides possible damage from one page or another.
 4. It is not to harm n. d. (including Kennedy's obligation
[Assuming judge says he will direct jury to find whether there was intent to harm.]
 5. Over-burden, ad hoc nature of security system.
 6. Property (Hol., Gellb.)

[What is new in PP is existence of gov process: lies, concealment, aggressive plans then public needs to know — could hint, but not as much as concealment has hint, & will hint...
